

ROLES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

The Solano County Emergency Medical Services Agency, designated by the County Board of Supervisors as the “local EMS agency” in accordance with California Health & Safety Code, Division 2.5, is responsible to:

1. Assure the community of a safe, dependable and responsive prehospital Emergency Medical Care System and
2. Protect the County from exposure to liability in matters relating to prehospital emergency medical services within the County by:
 - A. Organize and plan for system-wide benefits,
 - B. Certify Prehospital personnel.
 - C. Approve training programs.
 - D. Approve Continuing Education.
 - E. Administer contracts with service providers.
 - F. Provide medical control.
 - G. Promulgate policies and procedures.